On June 15, 2012, the defendant, Bashir Yasin Mohamud, was released by Your Honor on a Personal Recognizance bond and pretrial services supervision. The defendant returned to Minneapolis, Minnesota, and has since been under the courtesy pretrial supervision of the U.S. Pretrial Services Office in the District of Minnesota.

On October 15, 2012, a Petition for Action on Conditions of Pretrial Release was submitted to the Court indicating the defendant failed to report for random drug testing. The petition also indicated the defendant was in possession of a valid passport and refused to surrender the passport to Pretrial Services unless ordered by the Court. As requested, the Court ordered additional conditions of release to include: (1) The defendant shall immediately surrender his passport to Pretrial Services, and (2) The defendant shall not obtain a new passport during the pendency of this case.

On March 20, 2013, a Petition for Action on Conditions of Pretrial Release was submitted to the Court indicating the defendant submitted a preliminary positive drug screen for opiates on March 4, 2013. On March 8, 2013, the defendant admitted using Cheratussin, prescribed to Ayub Ahmed. As requested, the Court ordered no action.

Special Conditions of Pretrial Release:

Please reference the attached Order Setting Conditions of Release.

Violation(s):

The probation officer believes that the defendant has violated the following condition of release:

The defendant shall refrain from use or unlawful possession of a narcotic drug or other controlled substances as defined in 21 U.S.C. § 802, unless prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner.

According to the defendant's pretrial services officer in the District of Minnesota, the defendant admitted to smoking marijuana on February 21, 2014.

Probation Officer Action:

This officer maintains communication with the U.S. Pretrial Services Office in Minneapolis, Minnesota, regarding the defendant's compliance with supervision. On February 27, 2014, the defendant was referred for a substance abuse assessment. Additionally, the defendant was returned to the Code-A-Phone random drug testing program.

Respectfully Petitioning the Court as Follows:

It is respectfully recommended that the Court take no formal action at this time. Should the defendant continue to use illegal substances and/or fail to attend any recommended substance abuse treatment, a hearing will be requested where the defendant can answer why his bond should not be revoked. Assistant U.S. Attorney Van Vincent concurs with this recommendation.

TO THE DEFENDANT:

YOU ARE ADVISED OF THE FOLLOWING PENALTIES AND SANCTIONS:

Violating any of the foregoing conditions of release may result in the immediate issuance of a warrant for your arrest, a revocation of your release, an order of detention, a forfeiture of any bond, and a prosecution for contempt of court and could result in imprisonment, a fine, or both.

While on release, if you commit a federal felony offense the punishment is an additional prison term of not more than ten years and for a federal misdemeanor offense the punishment is an additional prison term of not more than one year. This sentence will be consecutive (i.e., in addition to) to any other sentence you receive.

It is a crime punishable by up to ten years in prison, and a $250,000 fine, or both, to: obstruct a criminal investigation; tamper with a witness, victim, or informant; retaliate or attempt to retaliate against a witness, victim, or informant; or intimidate or attempt to intimidate a witness, victim, juror, informant, or officer of the court. The penalties for tampering, retaliation, or intimidation are significantly more serious if they involve a killing or attempted killing.

If, after release, you knowingly fail to appear as the conditions of release require, or to surrender to serve a sentence, you may be prosecuted for failing to appear or surrender and additional punishment may be imposed. If you are convicted of:

- (1) an offense punishable by death, life imprisonment, or imprisonment for a term of fifteen years or more – you will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than 10 years, or both;
- (2) an offense punishable by imprisonment for a term of five years or more, but less than fifteen years – you will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both;

- (4) a misdemeanor – you will be fined not more than $100,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

A term of imprisonment imposed for failure to appear or surrender will be consecutive to any other sentence you receive. In addition, a failure to appear or surrender may result in the forfeiture of any bond posted.
